UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

BLENDTEC INC., a Utah corporation,

Plaintiff,

vs.

BLENDJET INC., a Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENA TO THIRD PARTY

Civil No. 2:21-cv-00668-TC-DBP

Judge Tena Campbell
Magistrate Judge Dustin B.Pead

TO BLENDTEC, INC. AND ITS COUNSEL OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, Defendant BlendJet Inc. will issue a subpoena to MarketStar QOZ Business, LLC to produce – at the time, date, and place set forth in the subpoena – documents and electronically-stored information responsive to the requests set forth in the subpoena. The subpoena, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, commands the recipient to produce documents by January 6, 2023, to the offices of Parsons Behle & Latimer, 201 South Main Street, Suite 1800, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111.

BlendJet reserves all rights to subpoena additional third parties for the production of documents (and/or for deposition) beyond the one listed in this Notice, to the extent BlendJet determines any such third party is likely to possess information and/or documentation relevant to the claims and defenses at issue in this suit.

BlendJet further reserves the right to notice the deposition of any third party that receives a subpoena commanding document production from BlendJet. To the extent that BlendJet notices any such depositions, it is willing to work with counsel for Blendtec and any subpoenaed third parties to schedule any such depositions for a mutually agreeable time and location.

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

DUCivR 37-1 DISCOVERY: MOTIONS AND DISPUTES; REFERRAL TO MAGISTRATE

JUDGE

(a) Discovery Disputes.

- (1) The parties must make reasonable efforts without court assistance to resolve a dispute arising under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26-37 and 45. At a minimum, those efforts must include a prompt written communication sent to the opposing party:
 - (A) identifying the discovery disclosure/request(s) at issue, the response(s) thereto, and specifying why those responses/objections are inadequate, and;
 - (B) requesting to meet and confer, either in person or by telephone, with alternative dates and times to do so.
- (2) If the parties cannot resolve the dispute, and they wish to have the Court mediate the dispute in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(3)(v), the parties (either individually or jointly) may contact chambers and request a discovery dispute conference.
- (3) If the parties wish for the court to resolve the matter by order, the parties (either individually or jointly) must file a Short Form Discovery Motion, which should not exceed 500 words exclusive of caption and signature block.
- (4) The Short Form Discovery Motion must include a certification that the parties made reasonable efforts to reach agreement on the disputed matters and recite the date, time, and place of such consultation and the names of all participating parties or attorneys. The filing party should include a copy of the offending discovery request/response (if it exists) as an exhibit to the Short Form Motion. Each party should also email chambers a proposed order setting forth the relief requested in a word processing format.

- (5) The parties must request expedited treatment as additional relief for the motion in CM/ECF to facilitate resolution of the dispute as soon as practicable. (After clicking the primary event, click Expedite.)

- (6) The opposing party must file its response 5 business days⁵ after the filing of the Motion, unless otherwise ordered. Any opposition should not exceed 500 words exclusive of caption and signature block.
- (7) To resolve the dispute, the court may:
- (A) decide the issue on the basis of the Short Form Discovery Motion after hearing from the parties to the dispute, either in writing or at a hearing, consistent with DUCivR 7-1(f);
- (B) set a hearing, telephonic or otherwise, upon receipt of the Motion without waiting for any Opposition; and/or ⁵ This provision is not subject to the addition of three (3) days provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(d).

- (C) request further briefing and set a briefing schedule.
- (8) If any party to the dispute believes it needs extended briefing, it should request such briefing in the short form motion or at a hearing, if one takes place. This request should accompany, and not replace, the substantive argument.
- (9) A party subpoenaing a non-party must include a copy of this rule with the subpoena. Any motion to quash, motion for a protective order, or motion to compel a subpoena will follow this procedure.
- (10) If disputes arise during a deposition that any party or witness believes can most efficiently be resolved by contacting the Court by phone, including disputes that give rise to a motion being made under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(3), the parties to the deposition must call the assigned judge and not wait to file a Short Form Discovery Motion.
- (11) Any objection to a magistrate judge's order must be made according to Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a), but must be made within 14 days of the magistrate judge's oral or written ruling, whichever comes first, and must request expedited treatment. DUCivR 72-3 continues to govern the handling of objections.

21. "Any" shall be construed to include the word "all," and "all" shall be construed to include the word "any" as necessary in order to bring within the scope of the request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

22. "Each" shall be construed to include the word "every," and "every" shall be construed to include the word "each" as necessary in order to bring within the scope of the request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

23. "Concerning" means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing, embodying, comprising, or constituting and is construed in the broadest sense to require the production of all documents which contain or comprise any communication (including representations, requests, demands and the like) referred to and documents that discuss, mention, or pertain to the subject matter of the request.

24. “Include” or “including” means including but not limited to and should not be read to limit the scope of any particular request, but merely as illustrative of some information that would be responsive.

25. The terms “relate” and “refer” are used in their broadest possible sense and include all matters comprising, constituting, containing, concerning, evidencing, embodying, reflecting, involving, discussing, describing, analyzing, identifying, stating, referring to, dealing with, supporting, tending to support, refuting, tending to refute, rebutting, tending to rebut, or in any way pertaining to, for each request whichever definition makes the request most inclusive.

26. As used herein, the singular form of a noun or a pronoun shall be considered to include within its meaning the plural form of a noun or a pronoun so used, and vice versa; the use of the masculine form of a pronoun shall be considered to include also within its meaning the feminine form of the pronoun so used, and vice versa; the use of any tense of any verb shall be considered to include within its meaning all other tenses of the verb so used.

27. Any pronoun shall be construed to refer to the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender as in each case is most appropriate.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. These discovery requests relate to documents and information in your possession, custody, or control, or in the possession, custody, or control of your agents, servants, employees, present and former attorneys, and any other person acting, purporting to act, or who has acted, on your behalf.

2. If a document responsive to a request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, state precisely what disposition was made of it (including its present location and the person(s) who possesses or controls it) and identify the name and address of the person(s) who authorized or ordered such disposition. If a document responsive to a request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, because it was destroyed, state precisely the circumstances surrounding its destruction and identify the name and address of the person(s) who has personal knowledge of such destruction.

3. Documents produced in response to these requests should be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business and should be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the request. Documents should be produced in electronic format, in accordance with the production conventions outlined in Section IV(C)-(D), and Section VI, of the Order Regarding ESI Protocol (Dkt. 30), which governs the discovery of electronically-stored information in the above-captioned matter.

4. For each document responsive to these requests that are withheld under a claim of privilege or work product immunity, provide a statement setting forth as to each document:

- (a) the name and title of the author(s);
- (b) the name and title of each person to whom the document was addressed;
- (c) the name and title of each person who received a copy of the document;
- (d) the date of the document;
- (e) a brief description of the nature and subject matter of the document;
- (f) the nature of the claimed privilege or immunity; and
- (g) for each document or thing withheld under a claim attorney work product, also state whether the document or thing was prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial.

5. If any portion of a document or thing is responsive to a request, the entire document or thing should be produced, with any privileged material – if any – redacted.

6. If you object to a request in part, state specifically which part of the Request you object to, and produce all Documents and Communications responsive to all other parts of the request.

7. In the event that you object to any request on the ground that it is vague and/or ambiguous, identify the particular words, terms or phrases that are asserted to make such request vague and/or ambiguous and specify the meaning actually attributed to you by such words for purposes of your response thereto.

8. If you object to or disagree with any of the Definitions set forth in these requests, or if you do not understand any term used in these requests, explain in detail the nature of your disagreement with the definition, or lack of understanding the term, and provide your definition of the term.

9. Unless otherwise noted, these requests are not limited in temporal or geographical scope.

10. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e), these requests are continuing in nature. You must promptly provide, by way of supplementary productions or responses, any additional documents and things that come into your possession, custody, or control at any time during the Current Litigation.
